

I subscribe to XM radio and I think that a subscription satellite service should be allowed to broadcast any content the customer desires. XM's ability to distribute local information is no different than Dish Network or Directv. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160 .